

PROGRAMME

XI Braga Meetings on Ethics and Political Philosophy
University of Minho, Braga, Portugal (full online event)
June 9-11, 2021

Contemporary Challenges to Citizenship and Democracy

Please use the following link to access the zoom sessions:

<https://meetingsethicspoliticalphil.weebly.com/zoom-sessions.html>

VERY IMPORTANT: PLEASE CHECK LOCAL TIME!!!!

Session 01 - Criticisms of Rawls

[RAWLS session]

9th June, 09h00 - 10h45, GREEN room - Chair: Bru Laín

The quest for recognition and the demands of social justice: a defense of Rawls' liberalism, Lucas Mateus Dalsotto (Brazil)

John Rawls and the political community, Carolina Matedi Barreira (Brazil)

Why Rawlsian Account of Civil Disobedience Fails to Accommodate Global Injustice, Taylor Lau (Hong Kong)

Session 02 - Human enhancement: ethical challenges and policy alternatives

[GENERAL session]

9th June, 09h00 - 10h45, RED room - Chair: Hugo Rajão

Can we avoid 'authenticity' objections to the use of enhancements?, Cristian IFTODE (Romania)

Enhancement, Authenticity, and Reasons, Connor Hocking (United States)

The case for a Basic Universal Genetic Endowment, Radu Uszkai (Romania)

Session 03 - Distributive justice, rights and citizenship

[GENERAL session]

9th June, 09h00 - 10h45, BLUE room - Chair: Daniele Santoro

Do Criminal Offenders Have a Right to Neurorehabilitation?, Emma Dore-Horgan (Ireland)

Citizenship as recognition for women? Rethinking prostitution, patriarchy, and basic income, Tarine Guima (Brazil)

Natural resources and capabilities, Virginia De Biasio (Italy)

Session 04 - History and tradition in ethical thought

[GENERAL session]

9th June, 09h00 - 10h45, ORANGE room - Chair: Catarina Neves

The place of the etiamsi daremus hypothesis in Grotius's oeuvre, Szilárd Tattay (Hungary)

The Grounds of Gratitude and the Dereliction of Justice, Yann Allard-Tremblay (Canada)

Reason, Logic, and the Structure of Practical Maxims in Kant's Moral Theory, William Reckner (United States)

Session 05 - Extensions of Rawls theory of justice and of rawlsian concepts

[RAWLS session]

9th June, 11h00 - 12h45, GREEN room - Chair: Bru Laín

The Extension of Justice as Fairness to the European Union, Wolthuis Bertjan (Netherlands)

Obligations to Future Generations: Rawls's Just Saving Principle and Conventionalism, Claudio Santander (Chile)

John Rawls and the search for a profoundly liberal basis of social unity, Tugba Sevinc (Turkey)

Session 06 - Epistemic challenges to democracy

[GENERAL session]

9th June, 11h00 - 12h45, RED room - Chair: Giuseppe Ballacci

Does overcoming post-truth and denialism present itself as a contemporary challenge to the exercise of citizenship and democracy?, Vagner Gomes Ramalho (Brazil)

Political Knowledge and Public Virtues, Denis Coitinho (Brazil)

Strategic Disagreements: A Form of Parliamentary Obstructionism, David Bordonaba-Plou (Spain)

Session 07 - Metaethics, moral psychology and moral cognitivism

[GENERAL session]

9th June, 11h00 - 12h45, BLUE room - Chair: Daniele Santoro

The Reason to Be Angry Proportionally, Michael Bruckner (Austria)

The later Wittgenstein and metaethics: Rethinking the debate between moral cognitivism and moral non-cognitivism, Jordi Fairhurst (United Kingdom)

Session 08 - Virtue, lying and trust

[GENERAL session]

9th June, 11h00 - 12h45, ORANGE room - Chair: Catarina Neves

The notion of habituation between Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics and Politics, Angelo Antonio Pires de Oliveira (Brazil)

Trust, Roles and Gift Relation, SuddhaSatwa GuhaRoy (India)

Entrapment, Temptation, and Virtue Testing, Daniel Hill (United Kingdom)

Session 09 - Rawls, political economy and the pursuit of a just economic system

[RAWLS session]

9th June, 14h00 - 15h45, GREEN room - Chair: Bru Laín

The Difference Principle and State-led Growth, Lukas Fuchs (Austria)

Distributive Justice and Efficiency beyond Capitalist Rationality, Pierre-Etienne Vandamme (Belgium)

A Pluridisciplinary Argument In Favor of a Variety of Just Political Economy Regimes, Mathis Porchez (France)

Session 10 - Human rights, the international world order and just war theory

[GENERAL session]

9th June, 14h00 - 15h45, RED room - Chair: Hugo Rajão

Proportionality in Cyberwar and Just War Theory, Fredrik D. Hjorthen (Norway)

Postscripts, Preambles, and the World We Fight For, Kyle Fruh (United States)

Unjust lending and human rights violations, Cristian Dimitriu (Argentina)

Session 11 - Migrants, border control and global justice

[GENERAL session]

9th June, 14h00 - 15h45, BLUE room - Chair: Catia Faria

Direct and Structural Injustice Against Refugees, Bradley Hillier-Smith (United Kingdom)

Could refugees live anywhere they want?, Leonardo Barros da Silva Menezes (Brazil)

Border Control: The Right and The Wrong, Yuan Yuan (China)

Plenary session 1

Moral Independence Revisited: A Note on the Development of Rawls's Thought: 1977-1980 and Beyond

Samuel Scheffler (New York University, USA)

9th June, 16h15 - 17h45, GREEN room - Chair: João Rosas

Session 12 - Democracy, the just economy and the foundations for a stable social union

[RAWLS session]

10th June, 09h00 - 10h45, GREEN room - Chair: Leonardo Menezes

The Economic Principle of Political Liberalism: A Comparison of Rawls and Sugden, Paolo Santori (Italy)

Democratic equality and Rawls's criticism of welfare state capitalism, Juan Antonio Fernández Manzano (Spain)

From Rawls to a New Social Contract, Paula Mateus (Portugal)

Session 13 - Problems of political legitimacy and authority

[GENERAL session]

10th June, 09h00 - 10h45, RED room - Chair: António Baião

Hierarchical Group Agency and Legitimacy: The Delegation Theory of Legitimate Political Authority, Ludovica Adamo (Italy)

Tacit consent revisited, Matej Cibik (Slovakia)

Session 14 - Moral responsibility, autonomy and equality (I)

[GENERAL session]

10th June, 09h00 - 10h45, BLUE room - Chair: Anthony Vecchio

Cynicism, Irony, and Solidarity: Moral Responsibility and Social Engagement in the Philosophy of Richard Rorty, Spyridon Kaltsas (Greece)

Social Norms and the Limits of Moral Responsibility, Katharina Naumann (Germany)

Excuses and their Role in our Responsibility Practices, Alexander Edlich (Germany)

Session 15 - Climate change, natural resources, global justice and sustainability

[GENERAL session]

10th June, 09h00 - 10h45, ORANGE room - Chair: Catarina Neves

Global Egalitarianism and Natural Resources, Alex McLaughlin (United Kingdom)

Sustainability beyond future needs, Kalle Grill (Sweden)

Session 16 - Public reason, value pluralism and the justification of authority

[RAWLS session]

10th June, 11h00 - 12h45, GREEN room - Chair: Leonardo Menezes

Legitimate Authority, Reasonable Consent, and Revolution, Ezekiel Vergara (United States)

Normative theories of constitutional democracy. From rawlsian political liberalism to Dworkin's moral reading of the constitution., Valerio Fabbrizi (Italy)

Was Political Liberalism Necessary After All? On the Irrelevance of Public Reason to Political Legitimacy, Giulio Fornaroli (Italy)

Session 17 - Liberal democracies: tendencies, pathologies and potential solutions

[GENERAL session]

10th June, 11h00 - 12h45, RED room - Chair: António Baião

Random Selection, Incentives-Based Capture and Class-Specificity, Vincent Harting (Chile)

Ethical Consumerism, Democratic Values, and Justice, Brian Berkey (United States)

Personalization of politics and single-person rule, Paulina Barrera Rosales (Mexico)

Session 18 - Moral responsibility, autonomy and equality (II)

[GENERAL session]

10th June, 11h00 - 12h45, BLUE room - Chair: Anthony Vecchio

The Basis of Children's Moral Equality, Giacomo Floris (Italy)

Choosing for our future selves. The moral requirements of diachronic self-regarding morality, Eleonora Viganó (Italy)

Patient-Regret, Lisa Hecht (Germany)

Session 19 - Reasonableness, public reason and the overlapping consensus

[RAWLS session]

10th June, 14h00 - 15h45, GREEN room - Chair: Leonardo Menezes

Civic Friendship vs. Public Reason, Andrei Beshpalov (Russia)

Rawls Overlapping Consensus: Moral Reasoning and Moral Sentiments, Luís Lóia (Portugal)

A Dilemma between Reasonableness and Coherence in Rawls's Account of Public Reason, Lorenzo Testa (Italy)

Session 20 - Populism, liberalism and democracy

[GENERAL session]

10th June, 14h00 - 15h45, RED room - Chair: António Baião

Why Laclau is not the thinker of populism, Pedro Góis Moreira (Portugal)

Incompatible sovereigns: populism, democracy, and the two peoples, Leonardo Fiorespino (Italy)

Reconceptualising liberal democracy: Arguments for a 'compound model', Karolina Jedrzejczak (Poland)

Session 21 - Value pluralism and hate speech

[GENERAL session]

10th June, 14h00 - 15h45, BLUE room - Chair: Anthony Vecchio

Does Hate Speech Violate Freedom of Thought?, Lucas Swaine (Canada)

A More Liberal Public Reason Liberalism, Roberto Fumagalli (Italy)

Plenary session 2

Ideal Theory and Racial Justice: On Charles Mills' Tanner Lecture

Samuel Freeman (University of Pennsylvania, USA)

10th June, 16h15 - 17h45, RED room - Chair: Pedro Martins

Session 22 - Contested rawlsian concepts: clarifications and specifications (I)

[RAWLS session]

11th June, 09h00 - 10h45, GREEN room - Chair: Daniele Santoro

Rawlsian self-respect as confidence in the value of one's conception of the good, Jorge Crego (Spain)

Reflective Equilibrium is enough: Against the need for pre-selecting "considered judgments", Reznitzler Tanja (Germany), Michael Schmidt (Germany)

Session 23 - Identity, inclusion and participation

[GENERAL session]

11th June, 09h00 - 10h45, RED room - Chair: Pedro Martins

Politics of Identity and Politics of Action in Hannah Arendt, Alzbeta Hajkova (Slovakia)

White Shame, Non-White Citizenship, John Lawless (United States)

Is Reservation Enough for Political Inclusion of Women and Dalits in Panchayat Raj Institutions in India?, Anu Malik (India)

Session 24 - Moral challenges of the digital age

[GENERAL session]

11th June, 09h00 - 10h45, BLUE room - Chair: Catia Faria

Digital privacy and social norms: A meso-level research agenda, Deven Burks (France)

Algorithmic profiling and epistemic injustice, Silvia Milano (Italy)

Session 25 - Contested rawlsian concepts: clarifications and specifications (II)

[RAWLS session]

11th June, 11h00 - 12h45, GREEN room - Chair: Giuseppe Ballacci

Rescuing the Social Contract: A Theory of Pre-Contractual Elements, Jorge Sanchez-Perez (Peru)

Ideal Theory and Its Fairness Role, Lars Moen (Norway)

The reasonable and the rational in general and in particular, Micha Gläser (Germany)

Session 26 - Relational egalitarianism: applications

[GENERAL session]

11th June, 11h00 - 12h45, RED room - Chair: Pedro Martins

Democratic Inclusion of Groups, Andreas Bengtson (Denmark)

A pluralist view of justice in childhood education, Fernando de los Santos Menéndez (Spain)

Solidarity as a Relational Ideal, Callum MacRae (United Kingdom)

Session 27 - Moral responsibility and risk prevention

[GENERAL session]

11th June, 11h00 - 12h45, BLUE room - Chair: Catia Faria

The Oppressed do not Have a Duty to Resist, Victor Guerra (United States)

Longtermism, Aggregation, and Catastrophic Risk, Emma Curran (United Kingdom)

Existential Risks, Individuals, and Moral Theories, Benedikt Namdar (Austria)

Session 28 - Justice and injustice for migrants and refugees

[RAWLS session]

11th June, 14h00 - 15h45, GREEN room - Chair: Alexandra Abranches

Loss of Homeland: The challenges of compensation, Jack Madock (United States)

Climate Change and Labour Migration, Jamie Draper (United Kingdom)

Session 29 - Republicanism, freedom and virtue

[GENERAL session]

11th June, 14h00 - 15h45, RED room - Chair: Pedro Martins

Non-domination Without Rights? An Impossibility, Davide Pala (Italy)

Freedom, Virtue, and Exit: The Control of the Commonwealth, Adrián Herranz (Spain)

Session 30 - Justice, ethics, and the future of work and employment

[GENERAL session]

11th June, 14h00 - 15h45, BLUE room - Chair: António Baptista

The Internet of Abilities and the future of meaningful work. An integrationist approach, Anda Zahiu (Romania)

Calling for a Relational Reading of Autonomy in Business Ethics – The Example of Constant Availability, Eva Kuhn (Germany)

The Negative Externalities of Unemployment: an Argument for Job Creation, Peter Wilson (United Kingdom)

Plenary session 3

Unpaid Caring Labour and Liberal Equality

Serena Olsaretti (ICREA-Universitat Pompeu Fabra)

11th June, 16h15 - 17h45, BLUE room - Chair: António Baptista